Riverside City Teachers Association (RCTA) Dues/Agency Fees for 2010-2011

As stated in the RCTA Bylaws, Association dues/agency fees are established by taking .44 of one (1) percent of column A Step 1 of the regular teachers' salary schedule (see www.myrcta.org). For the 2010-2011 school year, Association dues/agency fees are $201.00. The 2010-2011 budget counts 1,925 members for revenue of $386,925.00. Here is a breakdown of RCTA dues/agency fees for 2010-2011:

- $83.62-Employee and Outside Contractor Expenses. This includes the Office Coordinator, the Office Secretary, and Accounting and Auditing Services.
- $43.39-Program Expenses. This includes trainings, rep. stipends, conferences, institutes, contract maintenance, e.g., grievances and arbitration, scholarship, the Barbara Kerr Foundation, elections, and other committee work.
- $37.42-Total Governance. This includes Presidential release and extended contract. RCTA dues pay $100.00 a day to the district toward the salary of the president during the 180 school days (furlough school year) and an additional 25 work days during the summer for a 205 day work year. This amount also includes association release days, e.g. negotiations, and the cost of sending delegates to the NEA convention.
- $13.12-Building Expenses.
- $12.93-Office Expenses.
- $7.67-Organizational Expenses. This includes tax preparation, a webmaster, affiliations dues, meeting expenses, and retirement recognition.
- $1.98-Communication Expenses.
- $.87-Miscellaneous and Contingency Expenses.
